

LOCOCOCO, PRIMARY CONVENTION.

On Saturday next, comes off the election of Locococo candidates for the various county offices in "Old Fairfield." Virginia, now and for some years past, has been somewhat celebrated for the production of patriotic men, willing, at all times, to serve their country, their county, their State or their country, in any public capacity, provided it is a place of honor and profit; but of late years, we think the Democracy of this county have been equally productive in such materials, and if all these are not rewarded for their patriotic desires, it is quite certain that our neighbor of the Eagle is bountifully paid in the way of "dollar fees." We are only sorry that our contemporary of the Telegraph finds it necessary to complain that the various candidates, induced by some base motive or constrained by wrong influences, do not feel inclined to spend another dollar for an announcement of their patriotic disposition to serve the county in some one of the public offices "now seeking" for a new incumbent.

A shrewd farmer in the State we speak of, stated that, during a clearing, his farm was so overrun with men who came to make known to him that they were willing to devote their time and talents in the service of the country, that he was compelled to stop felling trees until the campaign was over, for falling which way they would, there was great danger of crushing beneath them some one or other of the candidates for office. In our own county, it seems to us from the multiplicity of candidates, that a like result would be produced, were it not for the fact that clearings do not take place at this season of the year. As it is, we cannot but fear that our Democratic county friends will have a short crop of corn.

The prettiest fight appears to be for Sheriff. We have four men who desire to execute the laws and the decisions of the courts, for a consideration, and after a careful examination of the present posture of affairs, we are necessarily forced to the conclusion that three of these gentlemen must be disappointed. At the present writing, we think our old friend that used to help carry coons, drink "hard cider" and sing "songs," stands the best chance for a nomination. The candidates are William J. Reed of Greenfield, Aaron W. Ehrlich of Lancaster, Jesse Lechner of Richland, and James Weaver of Lancaster.

The next most hotly contested canvass is for the Auditorship of the county. In this case, the fight is confined to Wm. L. Jeffries and B. W. Carlisle. Mr. Jeffries has had the office for two terms, but for various reasons, he is of the opinion that he can consent to serve another term, notwithstanding the generous rule of the party that no one will be required to serve for more than two terms. In such case, it need surprise no one that he will be nominated.

For Commissioner, we have Henry Borchers of Hocking, Daniel Teschop of Pleasant, and Thomas Smoot of Berne. The first named constitutes one of the sterner Democracy of Hampshire, but we fear he will find the party willing to be satisfied with the votes of that region, without imposing upon any of them the duties of a county office. Indeed, it would be a wrong to require the services of men, who shout and vote so well, in any additional capacity. The office was promised the second named candidate, to save Commissioner Reese, by men high in authority, and the pledge must be fulfilled. We think Mr. T. will make a good officer.

For Infirmary Director, we have John Kemmer of Pleasant, and Michael Miller of Berne. Both of these are clever men and good Democrats, but the former has been some trouble to the party in the way of managing the Infirmary and has not always been willing to countenance party corruption, and may be excused from further service.

For Coroner, we have George Harris and William Mitchell—both of them well qualified to fill that office—and between them, we think George will carry the day.

For Prosecuting Attorney, there is no opposition to the present incumbent, V. E. Shaw, Esq. Mr. Shaw has labored honestly and faithfully in the discharge of his duties, and of course will be nominated, not to that account, however, but because there is no opposition to him.

We have thus given all the candidates a fair show in our columns, and shall not complain, like our neighbor of the Telegraph, because they have not seen proper to advertise their patriotism through our columns. The canvass has been conducted with more harmony than usual; but still we hear of a great many things which tell very unfavorably of the character of the different candidates. The truth is, if the reports are correct, they have a much worse opinion of each other, than we have entertained of any of them. In conclusion, we cannot refrain from publishing the very flattering compliment paid them by our neighbor who didn't get a "dollar" a head:

"The candidates, with the exception of Mr. Teschop, for Commissioner, have not announced themselves in the Telegraph, although it is about twice as extensively circulated among the Democracy as any other paper. We do not believe that the candidates are such Pitycune men as to regard the extra dollar which it would have cost them. Some other means was brought to bear upon them. Threats were made a year ago that any man having his name announced in the Telegraph should be defeated, and we suppose the same threat was used this year. We can stand all such malignant opposition. It savors strongly of the class interest and policy of Whiggery, but can find no response in the principles of Democracy, which are not so narrow contracted."

After that, all the candidates ought to feel better. They are not "pitycune men," and yet, through fear, they have allowed themselves to become "narrow" and "contracted." We might tell a "tale or two" in this connection, but we won't interfere in the fight. The insinuation against the Eagle and its friends must be attended to in that paper. The attack ought not to have been made in the editor's absence.

Medical Notice.—The attention of the reader is directed to the co-partnership notice of Drs. Davis and Pearce.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The proceedings of this Convention, in part, will be found in our paper to-day. The President was evidently frightened on taking the Chair, and the adoption of the two-thirds rule is only another evidence that the leaders know but little and care but little for the genuine principle of Democracy. Butler is said to have declined in favor of Gen. Cass. Houston's friends are active.

We should judge from the tone of the dispatches that the Convention has a week's work before them.

CHEAP PRINTING.—We gave the wrong amount some weeks since, in speaking of the Assessor's Blanks. The Eagle prints the job, 150 quires at 1 cent per quire, or for $1.50. This is just $143.50 less than has been formerly paid for the same number of quires.

Amusement.—Johnson & Co's Circus, as will be noticed, is to be in this city on the 18th inst. We are assured that many improvements have been made and that it is one of the best in the country.

INDIANS.—A delegation of Fox Indians arrived at St. Louis, on Monday last. There were fifteen of them, and they presented the best appearance, as respects their manliness of figure and show of dress, of any delegation which had visited the city for months. They are not a particular business, but it is said that their aim is to secure a supply of legal tender.

DANIEL WEBSTER AND THE STATE FAIR.—The editor of the Statesman has seen a letter from Mayor Cass, of Cleveland, stating that the Hon. Daniel Webster has promised to attend the next Ohio State Fair at Cleveland, if possible. He has been invited to deliver the address.

CHOLERA IN LOUISIANA.—The Medium, (La.) Journal states that there had been, during the past week, several deaths at that parish from Asiatic cholera. The disease has been confined to one plantation thus far.

INDIAN MACHINE & FIRE INSURANCE.—By the Protection Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut.

THE OIL HARMONY.—Pat at Natick, devoted the best and most popular editions of Church and Sacred Music ever published—popular and sacred songs to the harmonization of the best of the best.

TELEGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE.

From Washington. WASHINGTON, May 31.—House.—Mr. Hall moved to postpone until Tuesday week, the consideration of the motion to reconsider the vote by which the Iowa land and railroad bill was on Saturday rejected, assigning as the reason, that the measure was important and the House thinly attended. Decided in the affirmative—yeas 110, nays 50.

Mr. Orr, from the committee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting 16,000,000 acres of land to Florida and Alabama, for the construction of two railroads; one to connect the Gulf with the Atlantic, and the other connecting Pensacola Bay with the Georgia Railroad, by Montgomery, Alabama. Consideration postponed till Tuesday week.

Mr. Harris moved to lay on Congress on the first Monday of August. Mr. Houston moved to amend by inserting the 19th of July. Resolutions and amendment postponed till Monday next. The House then passed a resolution that when it adjourned to-morrow, it stand adjourned till Friday.

Mr. Thayer passed a resolution to adjourn on Thursday, on account of the Democratic Convention, and then took up the deficiency bill. After discussion the bill was passed and the Senate adjourned.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Mr. Meagher arrived on Wednesday night, in the big Acon, from Pennsylvania, having escaped to that place from Van Dusen's Land, in an American Warbler. He says he had partial liberty, but he did not violate his parole. Having made arrangements for his stay in New York, he addressed a letter to the magistrate, 20 miles distant, in a district to which he was not permitted to go, in which he returned his ticket of leave, and said he would remain at his house that day until 12 o'clock, when he would appear, in order to give an opportunity of arresting him, if they could. When the magistrate read the letter, he ordered the chief of police to arrest Meagher, but he refused. Meagher waited 6 hours after the time, in order not to give the British authorities any excuse for saying he had violated his parole. He was accompanied by the young English settlers, who supplied him with horses and had horses to his services. The men at the police entered the house he passed out at another door, mounted his horse, came round to the front, and told them to arrest him if they could. The next moment he put spurs to his horse, and with his friends, was soon out of sight. He traveled 180 miles to the coast, embarked in a steamer, and thence on a ship the name of which he kept a secret. On his arrival at New York he proceeded quietly to the house of his friend Richard O'Gorman, in Dean street, Brooklyn, where he is now staying, and was last night welcomed by a large number of Irish settlers. Great excitement attended the Irish population. Meagher addressed the crowd in front of the house, and said his only regret was in leaving Smith O'Brien and John Mitchell behind him. He is a fine military-looking young man, and an excellent orator.

From Baltimore. BALTIMORE, May 31.—The Virginia Senators joined the H. ex. resolutions relative to the Whaling Bridge, and adopted resolutions simply requesting S. senators and R. senators in Congress to use their exertions to secure speedy legislation, to do adjust the controversy, as to procure an enactment for the regulation of commerce on the Ohio river.

In the Maryland Senate today an unfavorable report was made on the bill to take the sense of the people on a law to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors.

One branch of the city council passed an ordinance for loaning a million and a half of city bonds to the Parkersburg Railroad Company.

BALTIMORE, May 31.—This has been a day of political excitement, causing and speculation. The friends of Cass, Douglas and Buchanan are hard at work; but the Buchananites exhibit more energy and determination than all others. Six hundred friends of Buchanan, from Lancaster and adjoining counties, have taken up the cause of the larger rooms in the city, for their headquarters, and have arranged for a bountiful supply of refreshments, to which several thousand tickets of admission will be issued, good till the adjournment. The Pennsylvania and Virginia delegates are called upon to meet to-morrow night, when the festival will be opened, and plans adopted to further the interest of their favorite. The general impression is, that the Cass men, on the second night, will go over party to Buchanan and Douglas. As to the third battle, you are expected to make any guess as to that, but Cass is believed to be out of the question, and that the New York delegation will hold the balance of power. The carousal evening brought in a large number of delegates and strangers.

Arrival from Europe. NEW YORK, May 30.—The Arctic brings date from Liverpool to the 19th. Cotton has slightly advanced.

LIVERPOOL, May 29.—The best qualities of wheat advanced from 1 to 2. Flour commands more attention—advanced 3 to 6 d. Large orders to New York.
